Diocesan Annual Appeal for LIFE – Sat 25th/Sun 26th March

Next weekend, there will be a second collection in aid of LIFE.

LIFE has gone through some radical changes since last year—as well as the change in logo, the care service and education work carried out by LIFE have a new look, utilising social media and other modern means of communication. A recent campaign on social media reached around 107,000 people, with 12,156 people contacting LIFE as a result. Do take a look at LIFE's new website at www.lifecharity.org.uk to see all the ways in which they can help, and please be as generous as you can next weekend in support of the vital work LIFE carry out!

Did you go to All Saints Catholic School? Are you 50 between 1st September 2016 and 31st August 2017? As we are turning 50 we thought it would be good to catch up with old friends from our year. We are having a school reunion on April 29th at the Abbey Pub Function Room—it would be good to see you! Please e-mail maria.zydorkiewicz50@gmail.com for further details. We would also welcome any teachers who taught between 1978 and 1985. The more the merrier.

“Born For This”: Sunday 2nd April, from 1.15pm at St William of York (S11 8LT). This is a day for young people from across the diocese to take part in drama, movement and song to re-create the greatest story ever told. Young people aged Y7+ to gather at St William of York parish at 1.15pm, with a packed lunch and wearing all black, with the congregation joining us at 5.45pm. Those under 18 will need a parent/guardian to fill out a Participation Consent Form (available from the back of church).

Current Vacancies: Details can be found on the notice-board and on the Hallam Diocesan Website.
