Jesus Turns Water Into Wine!

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time. Year C.

Have you ever thought about being a news reporter when you grow up? I thought it would be fun to take our Gospel reading today and re-write it as if I were a reporter writing an article in a daily newspaper. How about this headline: "Wedding guest turns water into wine!" Wow! Let's read more!

"On Tuesday, a woman named Mary was in Cana to attend a wedding. A large number of guests also attended, including her son, a man named Jesus. All were reportedly having a good time until the host ran out of wine; at that point, it seemed the happy celebration might turn into a disaster.

When told about the problem, Mary asked her son to help. At first, Jesus seemed unwilling to do anything, but after some encouragement from his mother, he finally agreed. Eye-witnesses at the wedding reported that Jesus noticed several large water jars nearby and instructed some servants to fill them with water. After the jars had been filled with water, he told them to dip some of the water out of the jars and take it to the man who was in charge of serving the wine. When the wine steward tasted the water, he discovered that the water had been turned into wine. Guests were amazed at the turn of events and said that the wine was the best that they had ever tasted! As a result of this miraculous event, many people are following Jesus everywhere he goes, and many believe that he might even be the long-awaited Messiah!"

Well, that made a pretty good news story, didn't it? Do you know what is really great about this story? Jesus is still working miracles in the hearts and lives of people today! If you will let him, he will also work a miracle in you.
