The Good Samaritan

The Good Samaritan

Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time. Year C.

One day, a lawyer asked Jesus what he had to do to have eternal life. When Jesus asked him what God's Law said, the lawyer answered, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and love your neighbour as yourself." Jesus answered, "You are right. Do this and you will live." But the man had another question for Jesus; "Who is my neighbour?"

To answer this question, Jesus told a story about a man who was travelling from Jerusalem to Jericho when he was attacked by robbers. They beat him, took his money, stripped him of his clothes, and left him beside the road to die. A priest came by and when he saw the man, he crossed over to the other side of the road and continued on his way. A little while later, a Levite who worked in the temple came along. He also saw the man lying there and passed by on the other side of the road. Finally, a man from Samaria came along, and when he saw the man, he stopped to help him. He put medicine on his wounds and wrapped them with bandages. That isn't all. He took the man to an inn and took care of him. The next day, he gave the innkeeper some money and told him to take care of the man. "Give him anything he needs. If it costs more than I have given you, I will pay you the next time I am here." Then Jesus asked, "Which of these three men was a neighbour to the man who was attacked by the robbers." The lawyer answered, "The one who helped him." "You are right," said Jesus, "now you go and do the same."

The world is full of people today who are in desperate need of a neighbour, and who need our help. Just as the good Samaritan helped the one in need, Jesus says to you and me, "Go and do the same."
