The Bible promises us that if we love Jesus and trust in him, we will live forever in heaven with him. Isn't it sad that some people do not believe there is a resurrection and eternal life in heaven? I'm glad we do!

Jesus & The Sadducees

Thirty-Second Sunday in Normal Time. Year C.

I often find myself wondering about things and asking people lots of questions... do you? For instance, are zebras black with white stripes, or white with black stripes? What's in outer space? And what happens when we die?

In Jesus' day there were people that liked to think about and discuss difficult questions too. One such group was the Sadducees—religious leaders who did not believe in the resurrection. In today's Gospel we hear how a group of Sadducees came to Jesus and asked him a question to convince him into agreeing with them that there was no resurrection. They posed this problem to him: "The law of Moses says that if a man dies, leaving a wife but no children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother's name. Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children. So the second brother married the widow, but he also died. Then the third brother married her. This continued until all seven brothers had married the same woman. Finally, the woman also died. So tell us, whose wife will she be after the resurrection since all seven were married to her!"

Now that is a hard question, isn't it? But it didn't stump Jesus! He answered, "Marriage is for people here on earth. But in the age to come, those who are raised from the dead will not marry or be married. Not only that, but they will never die again. They will live forever as the children of God." Jesus went on to say, "Even Moses showed that the dead rise, for he calls the Lord 'the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' He is not the God of the dead, he is the God of the living." After Jesus answered them so wisely, no one else dared to ask him any questions.
