When You Are Afraid

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time. Year C.

What are you afraid of? What would make you feel scared? When I was young, I was a little bit afraid of my room in the middle of the night. I thought there was something hiding under my bed...but thankfully, there never was. Some people can be afraid of a particular animal, maybe spiders, birds or dogs. I know someone who is afraid of buttons. And there are lots of people who are afraid of flying, or of heights.

One day Jesus was with his disciples in the temple. The disciples were commenting on how beautiful the temple was when Jesus began to tell them about some things that were going to happen. He told them that the temple would one day be destroyed and that there would be wars, earthquakes, and people starving. He also told them that they were going to be hated and persecuted and even thrown into prison. Those are pretty scary things, aren't they? It would be understandable for the disciples to be afraid, but Jesus told them not to be afraid. He promised that he would be with them and that not a hair on their heads would be harmed if they put their trust in him.

Jesus has also promised to help us when we are afraid. We may not know what is going to happen to us in our lives, nor when we will feel afraid. Fear can be a good thing, but we should not let our fears keep us from enjoying the life that Jesus wants us to have. After all, he has promised to help us when we are afraid.

So whenever you feel afraid, know that Jesus is with you. Talk to him and put your faith and trust in him. Even in the darkness of the night, he will not leave you on your own!
