On The Road To Emmaus

Third Sunday in Easter. Year A.

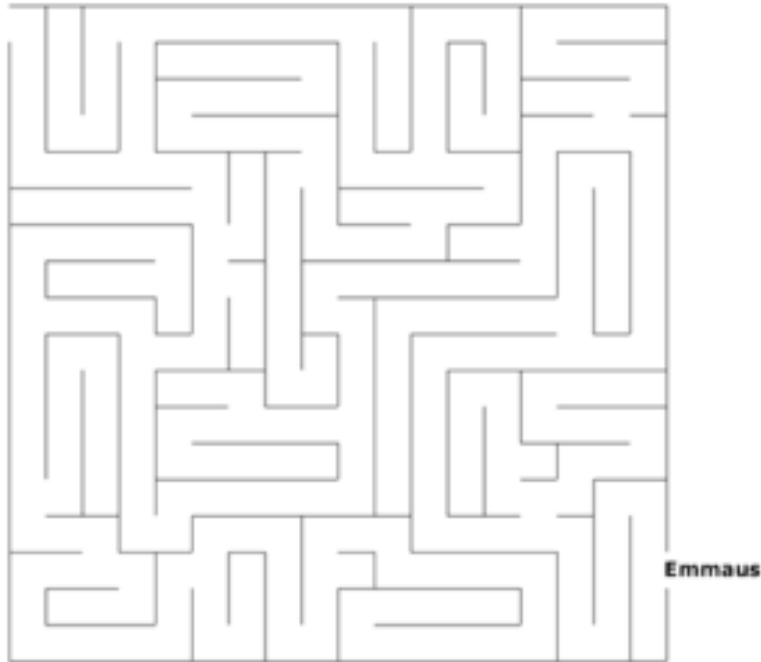

When Jesus died, his followers thought that he was gone forever, and they didn't know what to do. They were filled with sadness and huge feelings of loss. They had heard rumours that some people were claiming Jesus had risen from the dead and was alive, but it was too much for most of them to accept. They couldn't see things clearly because their doubt and uncertainty made them 'blind' to the truth.

Today's Gospel is about two of Jesus' friends, who were sadly walking back to their home in the village of Emmaus when another traveller joined them on the road. They didn't recognise who it was, but they began to talk to him and tell him all about what had happened to Jesus and how sad they were.

When it was evening, they arrived at their home and invited the stranger to stay with them and have supper. They sat down to eat, but it wasn't until the traveller broke the bread and blessed it, that their blindness was lifted and they saw the truth. They saw that Jesus was alive! They clearly saw what they hadn't seen before, even though they had been looking right at him most of the day! The stranger who had joined them on the road was actually Jesus - alive and well. And when this truth dawned on them, Jesus disappeared before their very eyes. They were very excited about this truth, and they ran back to Jerusalem to tell the other disciples. Jesus was alive!!
