Preparing The Way

2nd Sunday of Advent. Year B.

Today's Gospel tells us that God sent a man named John the Baptist to prepare the way for the coming of Jesus. The prophet Isaiah foretold this, saying that there would be a single voice calling out in the desert, "Get ready for the Lord who is coming. Make a straight path for him!" .

And so it was that John appeared in the desert, calling people to make amends for their sins and to be baptized. You see, John wasn't here to prepare a real path that Jesus could walk on, but to prepare the hearts of the people to receive Jesus, so that Jesus could walk among them and live with them.

During this special season of the year, when we celebrate Jesus' birth and look forward to the day when he will come again, you and I need to make sure that we are ready. We need to look into our hearts and ask God to make our crooked ways straight and smooth out the rough places. Oh, I know we've all done this before, but this job is never finished! Every day, we all do things that we shouldn't do, and we all need to ask God to forgive us and to make our hearts clean.

We all need to keep preparing our hearts to receive Jesus!
